

New Beginnings Marriage Ministry

Living Joyfully and United as One

"For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh. So they are no longer two, but one." Matthew 19:5-6a

The Value of Our Interviews

The excerpt below from PublicBookshelf Corporation is a great explanation of the value in reading about the lives of others, and helps explain why we publish interviews with successful married couples.

"One of the best ways to learn about human nature and the world is through reading biographies and memoir books. Learn the challenges faced by black entertainers by reading the biographies of famous musicians. Biographies of women entrepreneurs are a good way to discover the struggles and challenges faced by women in the business world. Experience examples of racial discrimination by reading the accounts of those who have endured and survived through the hatred. Movie star biographies can help you appreciate the success of your favorite actor or actress by learning how they earned their success. Draw inspiration and guidance from the memoir examples of others who have had the courage to write the stories of their own lives.

Biographies and memoirs are good for more than drawing inspiration. The lives of the successful can teach you how to go about enriching your life and creating your own fortune. You can learn from their mistakes and victories. "

We couldn't agree more and we would add that couples desiring a lasting and loving marriage can learn by reading about other married couples who have gone the distance in their own marital success.

Our interviews are not necessarily biographies or memoirs in the traditional sense, but we are inspired by the success of others and our hope is that you will be too. There is much to be gleaned in terms of life lessons from the interviews that we conduct and publish, and our wish for you and yours is to learn from the victories of those we have interviewed as you strive for your own personal victories.

Good luck and may God bless your effort.